

Only at the Rad Lab would you...

...create the Surfing Olympics (in Alaskan waters) to pass the time during the Cannikin event.

...eat on the job at the Nevada Test Site.

...find not one, but two people wearing these pants at the Cannikin Event.

“We have seen the bell bottom go and come again and the miniskirt come and go again. The one thing that doesn’t seem to have changed is the clothes the scientists have worn over the years.”

The LLNL Fashion Police

... find that even a simple massage has to be high-tech.

... have a mammoth for a mascot.

... be required to wear seat belts when riding on the Lab float.
